Access Point Exit Arrow

An arrow replaces the destination distance when the sign is at the destination or at the trail exit for that destination.
Only left or right pointing arrow should be used. When the trail exit is to the left of the path of travel, the left arrow should appear on the far left side of the Destination name.
This top destination slot can be the name of the street in which the traveler is exiting onto, or the name of a destination directly off of the trail.

Destination Distance
Font: Barlow - Bold, Sentence Case
Size: 0.625" minimum height of capital letter
Color: White
Position: Right aligned; 2.5" from right edge of green background, aligned with Destination Name vertically
NOTE: Mile should always be only 1 decimal ex: 3.0
