

Traffic Signal Maintenance Unit

The Traffic Signal Maintenance Unit is responsible for the maintenance and repair of over 1700 signalized intersections currently maintained by Los Angeles County Public Works. Personnel assigned to signal maintenance are the first responders to traffic signal trouble-calls on a 24-7 basis. Their training and experience allows them to adequately respond to any signal problem encountered. The signal Maintenance group also performs the routine maintenance duties described in the overview.