CHAPTER 524.
Statutes of 1921.

An act to cure defects in maps or plats filed for record prior to January 1, 1921, and in deeds or conveyances referring to such maps. (Approved June 1, 1921.)

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1: Any map or plat recorded or filed with the county recorder of the county in which the lands shown on said map or plat are situated prior to the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred twenty-one, shall for all purposes be deemed to have been properly so recorded or filed and to comply with all the requirements of the laws in force at the time it was so recorded or filed, notwithstanding any defect, omission or informality in the preparation or execution of such map or plat or of the affidavits, certificates, acknowlp edgments, indorsements, acceptances of dedication or other matters thereon, or required to be thereon, by any law in force at the time of such recording or filing, and all sales or conveyances of land by reference to any such map or plat shall be valid as though said map or plat had been made, certified, indorsed, acknowledged and filed in all respects in accordance with the laws in force at the time said map or plat was so recorded or filed. And any deed or conveyance referring to any such map or plat, which prior to the passage thereof, was copied into the proper book of records kept in the office of any county recorder shall impart after the passage hereof notice of its contents to subsequent purchasers and incumbrancers, notwithstanding any defect, omission or informality in the preparation or execution of such map or plat or of the affidavits, certificates, acknowledgments, indorsements, acceptances of dedication or other matters thereon or required to be thereon by any law in force at the time of such recording or filing.
