

August 13, 1915
I hereby certify that this tracing was lost on or about May 25, 1915 and after diligent search could not be found. Since it was necessary to carry the proceedings on without delay a black line print was made from a negative previously secured from said tracing. Additions were therefore made on said black line print and a new negative made therefrom, from which blue & blue line prints were made and filed in this condemnation suit.

This tracing is therefore null & void as the original map. The blue line print No. 1000 is on file as the original.

This tracing was found July 13, 1915 and no additions have been used in the proceedings.
