

Hand-drawn survey map of a section of the Santa Fe Trail. The map shows a route starting from the top left and proceeding generally southwards, with several turns. Key features include:

- Route Markings: Bearings and distances are written along the route, such as $N 63^{\circ} 40' 00'' W 383.00'$, $S 82^{\circ} 24' 00'' W 331.42'$, and $N 72^{\circ} 00' 00'' W 264.00'$.
- Geographical Labels: "Mesa" is written twice, and "On" is written once, indicating specific terrain features.
- RR Trestle Line: A vertical line on the right side is labeled "RR Trestle Line".
- Side Hill Up: A label at the bottom right indicates a steep ascent.
- Handwritten Notes: Numerous notes are scattered throughout, including "All traces of road lost here", "Side Hill Up", and "RR Trestle Line".
- Survey Points: Various points are marked with numbers and bearings, such as "77.45", "77.45", "77.45", and "77.45".
